

Internal Automation Opens Build Practice in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii

The AI automation firm brings fixed-price workflow deployment to enterprise operators across five industries.

KAILUA-KONA, HI · JULY 22, 2026 · Internal Automation today announced the opening of its build practice in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii. The firm designs, builds, and maintains custom AI workflows for enterprises in financial services, healthcare, insurance, energy, and logistics.

Internal Automation engagements are priced and scoped before any code is written. Work begins with a free intake call and a fixed-price workshop that produces a ranked deployment roadmap and a firm quote. Clients own the resulting systems outright, including workflows, integrations, and credentials.

The practice is accepting new engagements, with a first workflow typically live within weeks and full deployment in three to twelve months.
